DESCRIPTION

Walls:	Weatherboard/Vinyl	Roof:	Colorbond
Condition:	Good	Integrity:
Original fabric:
Modifications:	Vinyl cladding to side elevations

This small timber framed cottage has a steeply pitched colorbond gable roof. Vertical weatherboarding is used to enclose the gable ends. Original weatherboard cladding remains to the front elevation while it has been replaced on the sides with vinyl cladding. There is a skillion roof to the rear and a separate bullnose verandah roof to the front. The verandah is supported on turned timber posts. To the front facade the windows are timber framed and double hung, while other windows have been replaced with aluminium frames.
