DESCRIPTION

Walls:	Stone (Rendered)	Roof:	Comugated Iron
Condition:	Good	Integrity:
Original fabric:
Modifications:

This long limestone rubble building fronts directly on to the street. There is a steeply pitched comugated iron gable roof which extends to the front (west) to cover the verandah and also extends as a shallow pitch skillion roof to the rear. The stone has been rendered to the front and north facades. The verandahs are supported on half timber posts and enclosed with lattice above a masonry balustrade. There are two separate wrought iron entry gates to the street. Windows are timber framed and double hung, 18 pane. A single chimney is centrally placed to the apex of the gable.
